ments and new features for the present season.

Mr. Lewis was with Bostock's shows twice when they wintered here, and during each stay was in charge of the publicity department.

The summor parks, known as "White Cities" or "Luna Parks," in many large Northern and Middle Western cities, owe their existence to-day to the designing and constructing ability of Mr. Lewis, who is also a vaudeyille and theatrical manager of prominence throughout the North and West.

Negotiations between Mr. A. J. Pizzini, owner of Idlewood, and Mr. Lewis have been going on for a week, and Mr. Lewis spent Friday night in Richmond, virginia, June 25, 1967.

"A Runaway Match," which will be presented at the Bijou Theatre this week, deals with a double elopement, in which is father and son and a widow and her daughter are concerned, and the complications which arise are declared to be very amusing.

The company includes many well-known favorites, among them Bob Harty and Johnny Johnson, late of the Bijou Musical Comedy Company.

Foerecast for the Week

The immigration laws, placing numerous restrictions upon the incoming of undestrable foreignors, will go into effect Monday. The most important change brought about by these acts, which Congress passed in February, is the increase of the law of the foreign of the law of the foreign of the law of

The American Institute of Instruction, the oldest organization of teachers in this country, will open its seventy-seventh annual convention at Montreal on Monday.

The seventh annual session of the Catho-lic Summer School at Cliff Haven, Lake Champlain, will open Monday. Laymen and Catholic educators from all over the country will speak. Governor Hughes, of New York, will de-liver an address at the Jamestown Exposi-tion Independence Day upon "July Fourth, a Day Revered by All True Americans."

President Reosevelt will begin his third week of vacation free from all ongagements. In deference to his plans for rest he has been relieved by his neighbors from making his customary Fourth of July address in the village. On the evening of the Pourth Sagamore Hill will be turned ever, as usual, to the younger generation of Reosevelts.

The Emperor and Empress of Germany will visit the King and Queen of Denmark at Copenhagen July 3d. It is rumored in Danish court circles that the Emperor's third son, Prince Adelbert, is engaged to Princess Thyra, the second daughter of King Frederick.

An interesting ceremony planned for July Fourth is the addication of the John Harvard Memerial Chapet in St. Saylour's Crurch at Southwark, Eng., where John Harvard, founder of Harvard University, was christened, and where the body of his father Hes.

The one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Gluseppe Garibaldi, the Italian liberator, will be celebrated throughout Italy on July Fourth.
